

Company/Organization Name: Midmark

Location: Lincolnshire

Position/Title: Electronic Technician – Returned Goods

Duties/Responsibilities:

- Under general supervision, tests and evaluates products and assesses if the product meets pre-determined performance and quality standards, and performs related duties as required.
- Tests required parameters of electronic assemblies, circuit boards and x-ray tube heads efficiently using a variety of test equipment to confirm field failures and ensure that they meet all required specifications after repair.
- Troubleshoots problems, evaluating at the assembly level, assemblies or circuit boards that do not conform to established specifications and determines the reasons for non-conformance. Makes mechanical or electrical adjustments, as required, to meet quality specifications.
- Accurately record, per procedure, the repair activity, testing results and disposition of the returned parts/products.
- Assist Post Market Surveillance team to clarify quality issues related to product lines.
- Performs routine maintenance on department test equipment. Obtains parts needed to test finished products.
- Provides technical assistance to co-workers as required to evaluate and resolve problems.
- Considerable knowledge of electronics. Ability to read and interpret schematics to locate problems. Ability to read engineering documentation, bills of material and schematics.
- Ability to operate test equipment, gauges and hand tools.
- Ability to use high voltage and low voltage test equipment to conduct tests.
- Ability to identify the cause of problems and recommend appropriate changes.
- Good understanding about document control requirements
- Associate's degree in electronics.
- 2 years of related repair experience or electronic testing.
- Or equivalent combination of the above experience and education/training.

Salary Range: $19.04 - $22.46

To Apply Online: https://www.appone.com/MainInfoReq.asp?R_ID=1325058